Steve's leadership benefits from more than 40 years of hands-on experience in all phases of project management. As the firm's senior living team leader, he enthusiastically guides this area of the firm's work and is responsible for managing resources to satisfy clients' needs. Steve will serve as the primary client contact and will collaborate with you to establish overall project scope, schedule, and budget. He reviews all documents prior to submittal, monitors production schedules, manages contracts, coordinates invoices, and responds to construction contract administration questions, as needed. His memory care design experience includes the services integrated with other senior living programs as well as specialized in standalone boutique residences.
